

Do you have the need to add your own business rules for data validation in the annual or quarterly statement?

Wings is the only Annual Statement product that allows you to add your own Custom Validations. You can design your own formulas to meet any of your business requirements. Your Custom Validations are easily recognizable within Wings, and they are for your analytical purposes only, they will not be filed with the NAIC.